Road Trip time, again!

*This Saturday, June 12th Gathering,
5:30—8:30 @ Tustenuggee UMC Ft.
White,.*

Pastor Dave on the right;

Hosted by Pastor Dave and Marsha Huntley

How To Get There: Expand your horizons; visit a part of Florida you might never have seen before; it's a beautiful drive.

From Gainesville, take I-75 north to the Alachua Exit (Exit #399) and head west north west on US 441 all the way into High Springs (approximately 6 miles).

Stay on US 441 and continue north through High Springs for about 7 miles or so. You'll pass Oleno State Park on your right. About 1 mile past the entrance of Oleno State park, you'll come to CR 18 on your left.

Turn left onto CR18 and travel about another 3 or 4 miles. Turn left onto "Tustenuggee Avenue." There is a Church sign at that corner. After turning left onto “Tustenuggee Avenue”, travel 1 mile and you’ll see the church, “Tustenuggee United Methodist Church” on your left.

Child care: Please let Marsha Huntley know as soon as possible by phone or e-mail at (386) 497-1242 or at weservejesus@windstream.net

Ocala members? Dave Werner usually arranges car pools or luxury buses for the trek from Ocala to Gainesville. He’s out of town as of the time I wrote this, so I do not know whether the plan is mass transit or mass migration. If you can’t contact him, take matters into your own hands and come to the Land of the Unicorns (more about that, below). Contact Dave Werner: (352) 572-0203 or dwerner@atlantic.net

Covered Dish dinner: You already know that covered dish suppers are practically the ‘third sacrament.’ Please bring one to share.

Unicorns? No way! Yes, way. I tell you, Ft. White is a magical place. For several years, I used to live ½ mile from Tustenuggee UMC, so I know it to be true. But what is Ft. White famous for? A reasonable question with a surprising answer: Unicorns!

Why June? The reason that Dave and Marsha chose June as the month for the Emmaus Gathering in Ft. White is because this is Unicorn Season. That’s right. Unicorns are in season in every month that ends with “e.” Pastor Dave Huntley says this has been an exceptional year. He bagged his limit this season. Got a “1-Point” buck Unicorn. He’ll show you his prize antler.

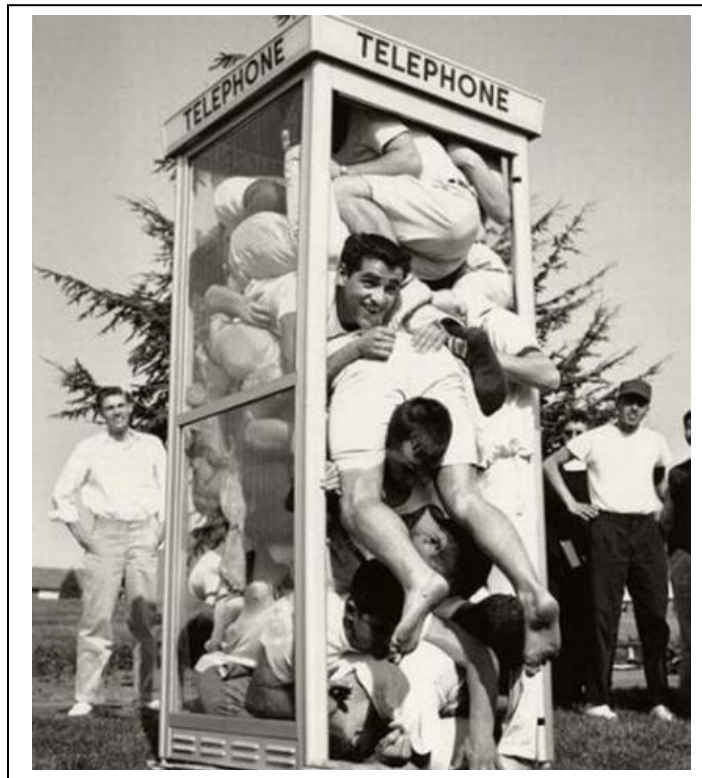

Two Great Hunters: Pastor Dave Huntley is every bit as accomplished of a Unicorn hunter as Pastor Dan Johnson is a Mushroom hunter. Curious how both of our pastors have such a penchant for hunting dangerous species.

Now THAT’S good eatin’: You’ve probably been told all your life that Unicorns never existed. Well, it ain’t so.....Marsha Huntley’s covered dish will be unlike anything you’ve ever enjoyed, before---fresh Unicorn meat. It doesn’t get any better than this!

Unauthorized photo from Walk #2: A pilgrim from the Men's Walk #2 had an unauthorized cell phone on his Emmaus Walk (in the legal field, we call this "contraband"). He took this photo of the renowned and luxurious sleeping accommodations of both Emmaus Walks #1 and Walk #2. It only looks uncomfortable.

Actually, once the numbness sets in, it's not all that bad. Any claims to the contrary are totally baseless.

See you in Ft. White!
