Final message from Lay Director, Dave Werner: who very recently retired from the banking profession and is relocating to Virginia to become a gentleman farmer, like George Washington and Thomas Jefferson.

Our fledgling community has been blessed with strong, visionary leadership in multiple positions on our Board, including—but certainly not limited to—our two previous Lay

Directors Dave Werner and Brian Meyers. Now we welcome our third visionary Lay Director, Donna Edmunds.

Thank you, Dave and Betty Werner for your excellent work for Emmaus. Dave has worked dozens of Walks and served in every capacity in the Emmaus community, prison ministry, international missions and many other areas of service for Christ.

When you see them at this April Gathering at Trinity, please give them a word of thanks for their service.

Welcome Donna Edmunds—Lay Director

Dear Living Water Emmaus Community:

God always provides. Sometimes I forget this...or worse, doubt it. But He does always provide when we're working within His will.

And so, as I prepare to leave for Virginia sometime this summer, Donna Edmunds agreed to lead the community in 2011. All of the Board Members along with their lovingly accepted service-for-Christ assignments are listed on the chart, below.

Thank you Donna! Thank you to ALL the volunteers for the service as Board members! And as always, most of all, Thank you, Jesus!

Your board of directors is hard at work and at prayer preparing our strategy for growing the Living Water Emmaus Community through Fourth Day activities. One of the most important of these activities is participation in a reunion group. I would be lost without my reunion group and our weekly meetings that include love, grace, and accountability. What about you? Are you in a group? If not, why not? Watch for more information coming soon.

Our next fourth day activity is the Gathering at Trinity UMC, April 9th. See you there! DeColores!

Dave Werner
Immediate Past Lay Director----Living Water Emmaus of Florida
